178. MR. A. C. KURIAKOSE (Minachil cum Devicolam): Will the Government be pleased to state;

(c) whether they are aware:

(i) of cases where applications from sons of the soil have been rejected for want of consent of the planters; and

(ii) that lands that were not assigned to sons of the soil on account of the objections of the planters have not been taken in assignment by the planters and that they continue to be waste lands?

MR. P. N. KRISHNA PILLAI (Secretary to Government): (a) There is no such provision. But, on the other hand, the Government have issued instructions that Travancoreans should have as much facility for taking up lands for cultivation in the Devicolam Division as in any other part of the State. Where a piece of land adjoining an estate is applied for, the proprietor of the estate is given the option of first refusal only in regard to such an extent of the land as may be found absolutely necessary either for the beneficial enjoyment of the estate or for straightening its boundaries. In other cases, the estate owner is given no preferential right.
